

The Ethics, Law, and Social Science of Self-Defense and Firearms

Announcement published by Andrew Moore on Tuesday, April 26, 2022

Type:

Workshop

Date:

June 1, 2022

Location:

New Hampshire, United States

Subject Fields:

American History / Studies, Law and Legal History, Political History / Studies, Public Health, Sociology

The Center for Ethics in Society at Saint Anselm College invites proposals for research papers on the ethics, law, or social science of self-defense and firearms, to be discussed at a workshop on November 11-13, 2022. The proposed workshop invites scholars from a variety of disciplines to explore constitutional, legal, moral, ethical, and historical debates surrounding self-defense and firearms in the United States.

We will sponsor up to 12 research papers, and selected scholars will participate in an in-person workshop, hosted in Manchester, New Hampshire, November 11-13, 2022. The Center for Ethics in Society will provide an honorarium, travel stipend, and two nights accommodation in the workshop hotel.

Proposals of no more than 250 words should state a research question and a tentative thesis or hypothesis to be explored. Please send proposals and a brief CV to ethics@anselm.edu by June 1, 2022. Successful applicants will be notified by June 20.

Contact Info:

Center for Ethics in Society at Saint Anselm College

Manchester, NH

Contact Email:

ethics@anselm.edu

URL:

<https://www.anselm.edu/ethics-society/blog/call-workshop-proposals-ethics-law-and-social-science-self-defense-and-firear...>