Deadline Extended! Proposals for the Midwest World History Association (MWWHA) Annual Meeting are now due on June 15, 2022. MWWHA will be meeting in Grand Rapids, Michigan, in conjunction with the Great Lakes History Conference on September 23-24, 2022, with both virtual and in-person attendance options. The conference theme is “Difficult Histories.” The keynote speakers will be Dr. Ana Lucia Araujo, Professor of History at the historically black Howard University in Washington D.C., and Jodi Elowitz, Director, Education & Engagement at The Center for Holocaust and Humanity Education.

Please, submit your proposal to the MWWHA website at https://www.mwwha.org. Presenters will be asked to become MWWHA members to be included in the conference. Please, join the MWWHA to support the services that the MWWHA provides and to have full access to the MWWHA website.
