

The State of Interim

Announcement published by Julian Asbäck on Monday, May 23, 2022

Type:

Symposium

Date:

May 27, 2022 to May 29, 2022

Subject Fields:

Digital Humanities, Fine Arts, Philosophy

A symposium on A.I. bundling diverse positions on from artists, researchers and beyond.

The Symposium will take part over three consecutive days, during the 27th / 28th / 29th of May. The participating positions will be bundled into three individual blocks, one for each day of the event.

We are happy to present to you our diverse and international program which combines artistic, theoretical and research focussed positions and presentations.

We are looking forward to a dense weekend full of talks, dialogues and discussions on AI, art, computing, coding, aesthetic theory, performative practice and many more topics and intersections.

Contact Info:

If you would like to participate in the symposium as a panelist, please sign up here via our guestlist:

<https://www.kaeur.studio/state-of-interim-guestlist>

To see a detailed outline of our program visit this link:

https://www.kaeur.studio/\_files/ugd/fe0aa0\_b14cdf2d59674e14a2ef2ab6f075e...

Contact Email:

hello@kaeur.studio

URL:

<https://www.kaeur.studio/interim>