

VIII International Meeting of Young Researchers in Early Modern History (EJIHM)

Announcement published by Catarina Monteiro on Tuesday, May 24, 2022

Type:

Call for Papers

Date:

June 1, 2022 to September 30, 2022

Location:

Portugal

Subject Fields:

Early Modern History and Period Studies

On June 1st, 2nd and 3rd, 2023, at Colégio do Espírito Santo (University of Évora), will take place the VIII International Meeting of Young Researchers in Early Modern History (EJIHM). In this 8th edition, we intend to broaden the approaches and, therefore we urge all young researchers in Early Modern History to send their communication proposals, without thematic restrictions. Authors must be attending a study cycle (bachelor, master or doctorate) or have completed their doctorate in the last three years.

Proposals must have up to 500 words and be sent between June 1st and September 30th, 2022 to the official e-mail address (ejihm2023@gmail.com), accompanied by a short CV (up to 150 words). Proposals in Portuguese, Spanish, English and French will be accepted.

The results of acceptance of proposals will be sent to authors by December 31, 2022.

Contact Email:

ejihm2023@gmail.com

URL:

<https://ejihm2023.mozello.site.com/callforpapers/>