

Call for proposal for SAMLA Conference in Nov 2022

Announcement published by Aude Jehan on Tuesday, June 21, 2022

Type:

Call for Papers

Date:

November 11, 2022 to November 13, 2022

Location:

Florida, United States

Subject Fields:

Environmental History / Studies, French History / Studies, Humanities, Intellectual History, Literature

Challenging Humanity's Answers to Nature's Global Evolution (*CHANGE): Anthropocene Poetics of French and Francophone Literature and Cinema:

Through History, French and Francophone intellectuals and artists have frequently represented the ever-changing human relationship with Nature through their works.

This year we invite proposal submissions on the evolving relationship between humankind and Nature, to be presented in a panel at the SAMLA Conference in Jacksonville FL, November 11-13.

We are especially interested in papers that critically examine the adaptation to the devastating effects of climate change and/or ecology and/or ecocriticism, as part of pathways of change, in French and/or Francophone literature and/or cinema.

Please send a 250-word abstract either in French or in English and a short academic biography to Dr. Aude Jehan at jehana@wwu.edu and Dr. Frederic Leveziel at fleveziel@usf.edu. New deadline: June 29, 2022 by midnight.

Contact Info:

Dr. Aude Jehan: jehana@wwu.edu

Dr. Frederic Leveziel: fleveziel@usf.edu

Contact Email:

jehana@wwu.edu

URL:

<https://samla.memberclicks.net/callsforpapers#frenchstudies>