Announcement published by Constance Cooper on Thursday, July 21, 2022

Type:

Grant

Date:

August 31, 2023

Location:

United States

The Episcopal Women's History Project (EWHP) offers grants to support research and publication of projects focusing on women in the Episcopal Church in the United States. Possible projects include, but are not limited to, biographies, studies of women's organizations, or the role that Episcopalian women or Episcopal women's organizations played in the life of a community or movement. For more information on the grants, visit ewhp.org/page-3/. Contact Dr. Constance Cooper, chair of the Grants and Scholarship Committee, at cjcooper15@verizon.net for application forms and questions. EWHP looks forward to hearing from you!
