Dear All,

I am writing to announce that in response to numerous requests the deadline to submit a proposal to the Roundtable for Black Feminist and Womanist Theory has been extended to Monday, August 22! Complete submissions include a 2-3 page (single or double space) detailed abstract, a 100-150 word author biography, and a bibliography of consulted material for the project that will be presented (this does not count towards the page limit). Panels may be submitted with one person listed as the contact liaison but the proposal must contain the biographical information for all panelists. Each session will be two hours with 30 minutes for presentation and 30 minutes for Q&A given to each presenter/panel. Decisions will be announced by Friday, August 26th.

This year's 3rd annual meeting of The Roundtable for Black Feminist and Womanist Theory, will be held at Dartmouth College (Hanover, NH) from November 3-5, 2022. Scholars, artists, and activists are across all career stages, disciplines, and affiliations are encouraged to apply and attend! Graduate students and junior scholars are especially encouraged to submit a proposal for consideration.

The link to register and submit a paper is here: <https://roundtableforblackfeminismandwomanism.weebly.com/submit-a-paper-register-for-the-roundtable.html>. If you plan on attending regardless if your paper is accepted or not, then please make sure to register as well! There is no registration fee, but registration is required to attend either the virtual or in-person component.

Please email bfwroundtable@gmail.com with any questions and make sure to share with anyone who may be interested in attending and/or presenting!
