Type:

Fellowship

Date:

October 15, 2022

Subject Fields:

Diplomacy and International Relations

The Michael J. Hogan Foreign Language Fellowship

Annual Deadline: 15 October

Applicants must be graduate students researching some aspect of U.S. foreign relations history. This award is announced formally at the SHAFR luncheon held during the annual meeting of the American Historical Association in January.

The Michael J. Hogan Foreign Language Fellowship was established to honor Michael J. Hogan, long-time editor of Diplomatic History. The Hogan Fellowship of up to $4,000 is intended to promote research in foreign language sources by graduate students. The fellowship is intended to defray the costs of studying foreign languages needed for research, or for the travel costs associated with research in foreign language archives. Given current travel restrictions, these funds can be used for online language learning programs. The award is announced formally at the SHAFR luncheon held during the annual meeting of the American Historical Association. Applicants must be graduate students researching some aspect of U.S. foreign relations history.

The Myrna F. Bernath Fellowship

Annual Deadline: 15 October

The Myrna F. Bernath Fellowship was established by the Bernath family to promote scholarship in U.S. foreign relations history by women. The Myrna Bernath Fellowship of up to $2,500 is intended to defray the costs of scholarly research by women. It is awarded biannually (in odd years) and announced at the SHAFR luncheon held during the annual meeting of the American Historical Association. Applications are welcomed from women at U.S. universities as well as women abroad who wish to do research in the United States. Preference will be given to graduate students and those within five years of completion of their PhDs.
