4th International Süleymaniye Symposium, Istanbul, 16-18 September 2022

Discussion published by Zeynep Çavuşoğlu on Tuesday, September 13, 2022

Dear Colleagues,

We will be honored by your participation to the 4th International Süleymaniye Symposium titled “Mughal (Baburid) Empire: New Sources, New Approaches” organized in cooperation with Ibn Haldun University, Department of History and TİKA.

You can reach the symposium program and abstract booklet from the links below:

The symposium will be broadcast live on the official YouTube channel of Ibn Haldun University (https://www.youtube.com/ibnhalduni). Videos of the Symposium will be uploaded on the YouTube channel at the end of each day.

Due to the limited capacity of the meeting room in the Süleymaniye Complex, Salis Madrasa, online participation in the symposium is encouraged.

Video recordings of the 3rd International Süleymaniye Symposium titled “The Köprülü Period in Ottoman History (1656-1710): New Sources, New Approaches” held on 24-26 September 2021 can be found at the link below: (The papers of this symposium will be published soon by Ibn Haldun University Press.)
