

Beyond the Classroom: Expanding Career Prospects for PhDs in the Humanities and Social Sciences

Discussion published by Saheed Aderinto on Monday, October 3, 2022

The Lagos Studies Association (LSA)

Invites you to a Webinar on

Beyond the Classroom:

Expanding Career Prospects for PhDs in the Humanities and Social Sciences

Date: Saturday, October 22, 2022

Time: 12pm (US Eastern time); 5:00pm (Nigeria Time)

Click the link below to join the webinar:

<https://us06web.zoom.us/j/87941300927>

This LSA Webinar seeks to expand career opportunities for PhDs in the social sciences and the humanities beyond the classroom. It will shed light on the symbiotic relationship among institutions of knowledge production, policy, and higher education. Discussants will talk about how they transitioned into their present and past roles, the organizational infrastructure of their fields in terms of funding, recruitment, policies, responsibilities, career growth and transformation, mobility, networking, and professional relationships with numerous stakeholders, which include academics working in classrooms and research institutes, government officers, policy makers, and donor institutions.

Chair

Dr. Tade Aina (Mastercard Foundation)

Discussants

Dr. Mark Duerksen (Africa Center for Strategic Studies)

Dr. Simon Heap (Oxford Brookes University)

Dr. Dipo Oyeleye (American Council of Learned Societies)

Dr. Amina Salihu (MacArthur Foundation)

Learn more about LSA:

Website: <https://www.lagosstudies.org/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/205111409881162/>

Twitter: <https://twitter.com/LagosStudies>

For any questions, contact LSA: lagosstudiesassociation@gmail.com