

In Memoriam: F.K. Lehman \(F. K. L. U Chit Hlaing\), 1924-2016

Discussion published by Magnus Fiskesjö on Tuesday, February 16, 2016

Professor F.K. Lehman (F. K. L. U Chit Hlaing), renowned anthropologist and Asia scholar, wide-ranging expert on Burma and its peoples, passed away several days ago. He was professor emeritus at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Professor Lehman is being widely remembered and there are surely obituaries to come. A memorial website was set up at the Center for Burma Studies which he helped found, at Northern Illinois University. It can be found via <http://go.niu.edu/Lehman>, or directly here:

In Memoriam: F.K. Lehman (F. K. L. U Chit Hlaing)

<http://www.niu.edu/burma/In%20Memoriam/F.K.%20Lehman1/F.K.%20Lehman.shtml>

In addition, a volume of appreciations from students and others was published several years ago:

Frederic Kris Lehman (U Chit Hlaing): Anthropologist and Teacher. A collection of personal remembrances and reflections by some of his former students. Edited and with a preface by John Gatewood. Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, USA: Printed at Lehigh University. © 2007 by John Gatewood. 77 pages.

It has been made available in PDF form at Prof. John Gatewood's website.

Sincerely, in sadness,
Magnus Fiskesjö
nf42@cornell.edu