

Sartre Studies International (Vol. 28, Issue 2)

Discussion published by Young Lee on Sunday, December 4, 2022

Dear Colleague,

The latest issue of Sartre Studies International has published!

Published in association with the United Kingdom Sartre Society and the North American Sartre Society.

Please visit the Berghahn website for more information about the journal:
www.berghahnjournals.com/sartre-studies

Volume 28, Issue 2

Editors' Introduction

Constance L. Mui and T Storm Heter

<https://bit.ly/3SZkacR>

Articles

Existential Philosophy and Antiracism: An Interview with Lewis R. Gordon

T Storm Heter

<https://bit.ly/3rPOomA>

Reading Angela Davis Beyond the Critique of Sartre

Edward O'Byrn

<https://bit.ly/3VmEJ4t>

Sinophobia, American Imperialism, Disorder Without Responsibility

Shuchen Xiang

<https://bit.ly/3SZkwAd>

Sartre and Camus: In/Justice and Freedom in the Algerian Context

Ouarda Larbi Youcef

<https://bit.ly/3CyqYae>

The Look as a Call to Freedom: On the Possibility of Sartrean Grace

Sarah Horton

<https://bit.ly/3eqtbfU>

Book Review

Book Review: Mabogo Percy More, Sartre on Contingency: Antiracist Racism and Embodiment

Thomas Meagher

<https://bit.ly/3CTPluV>

Sign up for Email Updates: <http://bit.ly/2SjSxeY>

Recommend Sartre Studies International to your library:

www.journals.berghahnbooks.com/sartre-studies/library-recommendations/

To renew or join UKSS/NASS online, please go to:

www.ebiz.turpin-distribution.com/JournalDetails.aspx?ProductCode=PC52137

Contact: info@berghahnjournals.com