Film Matters 13.2 is out now!

Discussion published by Judith Schofield on Friday, October 28, 2022

Intellect is pleased to announce that Film Matters 13.2 is out now!

For more information about the journal and issue click here>>

https://www.intellectbooks.com/film-matters

Aims and Scope

Film Matters is an exciting peer-reviewed film magazine, celebrating the work of undergraduate film scholars. It is published by students and for students and each issue contains feature articles, a healthy reviews section, and occasional pieces such as profiles of film studies departments or resources and opportunities that undergraduate scholars can pursue.

Issue 13.2

PREFACE

Generation Anxiety: Preface

By Sophia Bain

“GENERATION ANXIETY” (CHAPMAN FEATURES)

Superego, Desire, and Living for Others in Asako I & II
By William Yonts

Afraid to live, afraid to die: Sources of anxiety in She Dies Tomorrow
By Cole Clark

The Mimic, the Abstract, and the Familiar in John Carpenter's The Thing (1982)
By Emma Koss

Performative Revolution in Popular Media and Accelerationist Narratives in Resident Evil
By Mason Dickerson

UNCW FEATURES

Brechtian Orality in The Journals of Knud Rasmussen
By Saveria Amicucci

By Jade Courchesne

Empathizing with James Baldwin in I Am Not Your Negro
By Emily Heiser

How Ordinary People Breaks the Stigma of Manila’s Street Children
By Vanessa Zarm

CHAPMAN FEATURETTES

Constructing Characters: An Interview with Willem Dafoe
By Ethan Binotto

A Crushing Weight: Examining Disney’s Family Dynamics in Encanto
By Katie Potter

UNCW FEATURETTES

“Ghosts of Past/Graves of Future”
By Ben Dowd

BOOK REVIEWS

By Matthew Scipione

The Origins of the Film Star System: Persona, Publicity and Economics in Early Cinema, Andrew Shail (2019)
By Miranda Sprouse
Herstories on Screen: Feminist Subversions of Frontier Myths, Kathleen Cummins (2020)
By Ashlynn Chand

Second Time Around: From Art House to DVD, D. A. Miller (2021)
By Nathan Trieste

FILM REVIEWS

A Service of Uncertainty
By Sophia Bain

The Experiential Horror of Old
By Ethan Binotto

Booksmart (2019)
By May Miller Worthen

DVD/BLU-RAY REVIEWS

Mulholland Dr.: Lost in the Senses
By Cole Clark

The Princess Bride in Four Frames
By Kylie Baker, Michael Beane and Georgia Boggs

Do the Right Thing in Seventeen Frames

By Connor David Holland, Peyton Holland, Kayleigh Penny, Dan Verley and Logan Wells