

JOURNAL TOC: Re-membering Poland: History, Memory and Society in East Central Europe, special issue of History and Memory, 34, 2 \(2022\)

Discussion published by Scott Ury on Thursday, December 1, 2022

History & Memory, Vol. 34, No. 2 \(Fall/Winter 2022\)

Special Issue: Re-membering Poland: History, Memory and Society in East Central Europe, edited by Scott Ury

Table of Contents:

Scott Ury, "Re-membering Poland: History, Memory and Society in East Central Europe"

Barbara Törnquist-Plewa, Igor Pietraszewski, "Cosmopolitan Memories under Pressure: The Case of Postcommunist Wrocław"

Kinga Polynczuk-Alenius, "Palimpsestic Memoryscape: Heterotopias, 'Multiculturalism' and Racism in Białystok"

Alejandro Perez-Reyes, "A Monumental Reinterpretation: Deciphering the Meanings of Rzeszów's Monument to the Revolutionary Act"

Michał Rauszer, Elżbieta Durys, "Monuments of Oblivion: Forgetting, Prosthetic Memory and the Polish Nation"

Eliyana R. Adler, "Entangled Memories: Wartime Experiences in the Soviet Interior in Postwar Holocaust Testimonies"

Wojciech Tworek, "Nostalgia, Canonization and the Messianic Renewal: The Case of the Chabad Hasidic Movement"