December 18, 2022

Location:

Turkey

Subject Fields:

Art, Art History & Visual Studies, Early Modern History and Period Studies, Medieval and Byzantine History / Studies, Middle East History / Studies, Urban History / Studies

Istanbul Research Institute (IAE) and Koç University's Research Center for Anatolian Civilizations (ANAMED) are pleased to announce a new joint fellowship to support one post-doctoral scholar conducting research on the archaeology, architecture, art history, heritage, or history of Istanbul. The fellow will benefit from residence in Istanbul and the facilities of both the IAE and ANAMED.

All candidates must be conversant in English and agree to take on no other obligation (e.g., part-time teaching) during the fellowship term. The successful applicant will hold the fellowship for the fall term of the 2023-2024 academic year in residence at ANAMED in Istanbul and must be able to carry out the proposed research with resources available in both institutions and thus in Turkey.

The fellowship offers benefits include a monthly stipend to cover expenses not already included in the fellowship, international travel costs to and from Turkey, accommodation at ANAMED, five meals per week or support for the same, health insurance, a modest research budget, a workspace, and full access to the research and library facilities, events, and scholarly communities within both sponsoring institutions.

Please note that all applications must be submitted via ANAMED's application form.

Application deadline is December 18.

Eligibility Requirements

*PhD candidates who have completed the doctoral qualification stage and post-doctoral and senior scholars in relevant fields can apply for fellowships.

*An applicant who has completed or expects to complete her/his PhD (including the defense, viva voce, and/or final public examination) before the fellowship term begins should apply for a Post-Doctoral Fellowship. In cases where the PhD degree is granted after the application has been submitted but before the fellowship term begins, the applicant is required to submit a copy of the doctoral diploma (and/or final transcript) to the Fellowship Coordinator before the fellowship term begins. If the applicant fails to complete the PhD before the fellowship term begins, the Post-Doctoral Fellowship will be cancelled.

*An applicant who has applied for and is awarded a PhD Fellowship and who successfully completes her/his PhD during the ANAMED fellowship year will be allowed to complete the full term of the fellowship but will not be eligible for an upgrade to a Post-Doctoral Fellowship.

*Koç University PhD students are not eligible for ANAMED PhD Fellowships. Graduates of Koç University PhD programs, however, may apply for Post-Doctoral and/or Senior Fellowships.

*Applicants may not apply for both Regular/Joint Fellowships and Short-Term Fellowships in the same year.

*Former fellows of Istanbul Research Institute can re-apply for a grant after five years have passed since their previous fellowship year.

*Applications from scholars of all nationalities are encouraged, yet fellows must be proficient in English.

All Benefits

*A monthly stipend to cover most local expenses not covered by the fellowship

*Accommodation at ANAMED's residential facility in the center of Beyoğlu, Istanbul

*Five meals per week

*Transportation to and from Turkey.

*A modest research budget.

*Health insurance

*Residence permit

*Full access to the İAE and ANAMED Libraries, their library services, affiliates (via BiblioPera), and online resources

*Full access to lectures, symposia, and other activities at İAE and ANAMED and on the main Koç University campus
