

Anthony D. Smith Visiting Fellowship 2023

Announcement published by David Landon Cole on Monday, December 5, 2022

Type:

Fellowship

Date:

December 8, 2022

Location:

United Kingdom

Subject Fields:

Ethnic History / Studies, Nationalism History / Studies

Applications are invited for the Anthony D Smith Fellowship with a starting date of February 2023 (though this is negotiable). The Anthony Smith Visiting Fellowship provides £5,000 for a one to two month research stay at LSE IDEAS. It is intended primarily, but not exclusively, for scholars in the early stages of their career, namely doctoral candidates and post-doctoral fellows whose work and research focuses primarily on a topic related to nationalism. Visiting Fellows will be required to write a Strategic Update on their research topic (up to 5,000 words) and present their research at an ASEN/LSE IDEAS seminar.

Eligibility

Doctoral candidates at an advanced stage in their thesis and early career researchers within seven years of submission of their doctoral thesis are eligible to apply. The deadline for applications is 2359UTC on 8th December, 2022.

Applicants may come from anywhere in the world. However, neither ASEN nor the LSE can assist with obtaining a visa. If the successful applicant requires a visa but is unable to obtain one independently, we will offer a remote fellowship instead of a visiting fellowship. This would give access to the LSE's online resources, including electronic access to the library, as well as support and supervision from academics at LSE and ASEN.

How to apply

To apply, please submit the following on the form at the bottom of this page:

- Your CV
- A 1,000 word research proposal
- A 500 word statement explaining how the scholarship would contribute to your programme of research
- Names and email addresses of two academic referees
