Date: Tuesday, December 13, 2022
Time: 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. (EST)

Recording and closed captioning are available.
All webinars are free of charge.

- Speaker Robin Butterhof, Digital Conversion Specialist, Library of Congress, Serial and Government Publications Division
- Learning outcomes: Chronicling America—a partnership between the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH), the Library of Congress, and state cultural institutions—includes over 20 million pages of U.S. newspapers from 1777–1963. What can you do with these newspapers? Genealogy, teaching with primary sources, citizen history projects, and experiments with artificial intelligence (AI)! Come learn how these free and publicly accessible newspapers can be used by your patrons.

Registration confirmation information:

Upon registering, a confirmation email from icSys@icohere.com will be sent with instructions for joining the webinar. To ensure delivery of that email, configure your junk mail or spam filter(s) to permit messages from that address. GPO staff will also email your access information the day before the webinar. If you do not receive your login information, please email FDLPoutreach@gpo.gov.

Prior to the webinar:

For those participating via a desktop or laptop computer (preferred method), a WebEx plug-in must be installed (one-time only). Download instructions. Some features will not be available for users participating with a tablet or smartphone. Devices need to have a WebEx app installed from the device's app store, which may take time. After installation, the app will ask for you to Allow or Deny permissions.
