

Fellowship opportunity: the One-Year Jewish Studies Program in Sweden

Announcement published by Lukasz Gorniok on Wednesday, December 21, 2022

Type:

Fellowship

Date:

September 1, 2023

Location:

Sweden

Subject Fields:

History Education, Holocaust, Genocide, and Memory Studies, Jewish History / Studies, Middle East History / Studies, Modern European History / Studies

Paideia the European Institute for Jewish Studies in Sweden has opened the recruitment process for the intense One-Year Jewish Studies Program starting from September 2023 in Stockholm.

The One-Year Jewish Studies Program is dedicated to the study and interdisciplinary interpretation of the textual sources that have served as the wellsprings of Jewish civilization. The program has been running since 2001 and is one of the most intensive Jewish learning experiences in Europe. It offers a combination of traditional textual study methodology (Hevruta), an academic and critical approach to interpretation, and an applied dimension answering to contemporary needs, making it a unique program in Jewish studies.

Each year, 25-30 fellows with different backgrounds and from all over Europe are elected to the program.

What do we offer?

- an intensive academic program focused on primary textual Jewish sources
- a broad variety of subjects of Jewish Studies taught by prominent scholars from Israel, Europe and the US
- a multi-leveled Hebrew language study program

Discover the program catalogue»

What's more?

- easy application process
- tuition free participation
- no age limit
- available scholarships for accommodation and living
- the language of instruction is English
- no previous knowledge of Hebrew is required

Learn more about the application process»

Application deadline is 31/01/2023.

Do you have questions?

Email us at: recruitment@paideia-eu.org

Contact Info:

Paideia - the European Institute for Jewish Studies in Sweden

Visit our website

Contact Email:

recruitment@paideia-eu.org

URL:

<https://paideia-eu.org/programs/the-one-year-jewish-studies-program/>