TOC & CFP, December 2022 African Diaspora Archaeology Newsletter

Discussion published by Christopher Fennell on Tuesday, December 27, 2022

The December 2022 Newsletter is now available online at: http://www.diaspora.illinois.edu/newsletter.html

Please contact Chris Fennell if you have essays, analysis papers, book reviews, project reports, announcements, or news updates that you'd like to contribute to the African Diaspora Archaeology Network (ADAN) and Newsletter. This Newsletter will be published quarterly, in March, June, September, and December.

In December's newsletter, we feature: articles by Abdul Alkalimat, Peter H. Wood, and J. Mark Wittkofski; news reports and announcements (on Toyin Falola, Saidiya Hartman, Tsione Wolde-Michael, Douglass Book Prize Winners, Open Access Articles on JADAH, Restorative Justice in Heritage Studies & Archaeology book series, USC and NPS Civil Rights Network, and Clotilda Descendants); a compiled list of dissertations in history over the past decade; new books, exhibits, podcast, and database, upcoming conferences, and book and film reviews by John P. McCarthy, Angela Perez-Villa, Andrew E. Barnes, and Neely Swanson.

Please also consider submitting article manuscripts to our peer-reviewed Journal of African Diaspora Archaeology & Heritage (JADAH) (Taylor and Francis Press). https://www.tandfonline.com/toc/yjaf20/current

And join me in thanking lead editor Lydia Wilson Marshall and the members of the advisory board of the journal for its great success. We are now in our 10th year of publishing high-quality articles for readers world-wide.

Best wishes,
Chris

Christopher C. Fennell
Founding editor, Journal of African Diaspora Archaeology and Heritage
Professor of Anthropology and Law, University of Illinois
Visiting Professor, University of Chicago Law School