Call for Papers: 2023 Popular Culture Association/American Culture Association Annual Conference—Biographies Area: San Antonio, Texas (April 5-8, 2023) Submission Deadline Extension: 1/10/2023

Discussion published by Susie Skarl on Monday, December 26, 2022
Type: Call for Papers
Date: January 10, 2023
Subject Fields: Biography, Popular Culture Studies, Film and Film History, Journalism and Media Studies, Music and Music History

The Popular Culture Association/American Culture Association annual conference will be held on April 5-8, 2023 at the Marriott Rivercenter in San Antonio, Texas. Scholars from a wide variety of disciplines will meet to share their Popular Culture research and interests.

The Biographies Area is soliciting papers that examine the connections between biography and popular culture. Papers and full panel presentations regarding any aspect of popular culture and biography are encouraged. Potential topics might include:

- Biography and entertainment, art, music, theater
- Biography and film
- Biography and criminal justice
- Television programs about biography
- Biography and urban legends
- Biography and folklore
- Biography and literature
- Scholarly Biography
- Controversial Biography
- Psychoanalysis and Biography
- Historical Biography
- Political Biography
- Autobiography

Prospective presenters should enter their proposals in the PCA/ACA 2017 Event Management database at https://conference.pcaaca.org/.

Questions about proposals can be sent to Susie Skarl: susie.skarl@unlv.edu.

The deadline is January 10, 2023.

Thank you for your interest!
Contact Info:

Susie Skarl
Associate Professor/Urban Affairs Librarian
UNLV Libraries
4505 South Maryland Parkway
Las Vegas, NV 89154

Contact Email:
susie.skarl@unlv.edu