Query: When and where did Genesis 22 enter the readings for Rosh Hashanah?

Discussion published by Kris Lindbeck on Saturday, December 31, 2022

I am writing on the Aqedah in Genesis Rabbah, and am looking for sources on whether Genesis 22 was read in the synagogue in amoraic times in the West. I find a number of secondary sources saying this was so, and it makes sense for various reasons, but the only cited proof in a rabbinic text that I have found is in Bavli Megillah 31a:10. This says it was read on the second day of the festival, which would not have been observed in the land of Israel.

Any help is much appreciated.
