

OLH features in a European Commission report on business models for sustainable non-for-profit OA publishing

Discussion published by Dominique Daniel on Wednesday, January 4, 2023

"The Open Library of Humanities is very honoured to have been showcased in a European Commission report on business models for sustainable non-for-profit OA publishing. The report, "Operationalising Open Research Europe as a collective publishing enterprise" published in October 2022, was commissioned by the European Commission for their Open Research Europe (ORE) publishing platform."

(Open Library of Humanities News, <https://www.openlibhums.org/news/606/>)