

12th International Summer Academy of the Bavarian American Academy

Announcement published by Emily Naser-Hall on Wednesday, January 25, 2023

Type:

Conference

Date:

June 5, 2023 to June 13, 2023

Location:

Kentucky, United States

Subject Fields:

American History / Studies, Cultural History / Studies, Humanities, Literature

The Summer Academy is a collaboration of the Bavarian American Academy and the University of Kentucky to explore a theme in American Studies through a combination of keynote lectures, group work-in-progress sessions, and cultural activities, over an eight-day period, with a nominal tuition (which includes housing and cultural events) of $550. Its limited enrollment is open by competitive application. This year's theme is "Cultural Narratives of the State in a Comparative Perspective."

The program of the academy entails keynote lectures by US and European speakers and work-in-progress presentations by doctoral students and junior faculty. All presentations are delivered in plenary sessions, with ample time for questions and discussion. The eight-day program will also include several cultural events related to the region.

Applications are open for doctoral students and junior faculty. Applications should contain:

- a 1-page letter of application
- CV
- a 2-page project description
- one letter of recommendation

The application should be submitted electronically by March 17, 2023 to baa.2023@uky.edu. Please direct any questions to Emily Naser-Hall, Program Coordinator, at baa.2023@uky.edu.

For further information, consult the BAA Summer School 2023 website at baa2023@uky.edu

Contact Info:

Directors: Alan Nadel (University of Kentucky) and Heike Paul (FAU)

Co-Director: Martha Schoolman (Florida International University Miami)

Coordinator: Emily Naser-Hall (University of Kentucky)

Contact Email:

ena225@uky.edu

URL:

<https://baa2023.uky.edu/>