

Graduate Program in History and Philosophy of Sport--Penn State University

Discussion published by Andrew Linden on Monday, January 30, 2023

Looking for a graduate program in sport history and/or sport philosophy? See note below on behalf of Dr. Jaime Schultz at the Penn State University.

Andy Linden

Hello,

The History and Philosophy of Sport program at Penn State University is accepting applications for its graduate program (M.S., PhD.). Support is available for qualified applicants, including tuition, medical insurance, and a yearly stipend (~$25,000). If interested, please contact Jaime Schultz at jls1024@psu.edu.

More information about the graduate program can be found here: <https://hhd.psu.edu/kines/graduate/areas-study/history-and-philosophy-sport>

Thanks for your time,

Jaime