

CFP - Panel on Premodern Islamic Maghrib for MESA 2023 in Montreal

Discussion published by Jacob Mundy on Saturday, January 28, 2023

From Stephen Cory, Professor in the Departments of History and Philosophy/Comparative Religion, Cleveland State University:

I am organizing a panel on the pre-modern Islamic Maghrib for the 2023 Middle East Studies Association (MESA) annual meeting. The conference will be held on November 2-5, 2023, in Montréal, Québec, Canada. 300-400 word abstracts for the paper proposals will need to be submitted on the MESA website by February 16, 2023. However, since I have to submit a panel proposal, I will need to know who is on the panel and what they plan to talk about by February 4.

The tentative name for the panel is "Political, Social and Religious Change in the Pre-Modern Islamic Maghrib." I am also open to considering paper proposals dealing with other topics related to the pre-modern (before the nineteenth century) Islamic Maghrib. If you are interested in participating, please send an abstract of 200-400 words and a 50-word biography by February 4 to s.cory@csuohio.edu.
