Please join us to celebrate a series of prize-winning titles recently published by the Paul Mellon Centre.

There will be a short talk about each book and the research behind it, followed by the opportunity to ask questions. Afterwards, there will be drinks, canapes and a chance to meet the speakers:

Adriano Aymonino, whose book *Enlightened Eclecticism: The Grand Design of the 1st Duke and Duchess of Northumberland* won the twentieth annual William MB Berger Prize for British Art History

Henrietta McBurney, whose book *Illuminating Natural History: The Art and Science of Mark Catesby* won the 2023 Historians of British Art Book Prize for a single-authored book with a subject between 1600 and 1800

Mark Girouard, who died in August 2022, won the Society of Architectural Historians of Great Britain's 2022 Colvin Prize for his *Biographical Dictionary of English Architecture, 1540-1640*. Kyle Leyden, who was Mark Girouard's research assistant, will speak about the process of publishing the dictionary.

Manolo Guerci, whose book *London's 'Golden Mile': The Great Houses of the Strand, 1550-1650* won the 2023 Historians of British Art Book Prize for a single-authored book with a subject before 1600

Todd Longstaffe-Gowan, whose book *English Garden Eccentrics: Three Hundred Years of Extraordinary Groves, Burrowings, Mountains and Menageries* was named Apollo's 2022 Book of the Year

The event will be followed by a drinks reception.
