

Call for Applications: DFG Research Training Group GRK 2833 "East Asian Futures" \(EAF\)

Discussion published by Christine Moll-Murata on Wednesday, February 8, 2023

The DFG Research Training Group GRK 2833 „East Asian Futures“ at Ruhr University Bochum and University of Duisburg-Essen, Germany, solicits applications for its doctoral programme:

For doctoral researchers, seven DFG-funded positions (0.75 FTE) and six affiliated fellowships

For postdocs, one full DFG-funded position and three affiliated fellowships.

Deadline for applications: 31 March 2023. Start of the programme: 1 October 2023.

The interdisciplinary Research Training Group GRK 2833 will investigate East Asian projections and conceptions of the future:

how they emerged, on what premises they were based, and how they have been and continue to be applied to the paradigmatic fields of (1) language, religion, and ideology, (2) self and society, (3) resources and technology, and (4) sovereignty and governance. The temporal focus is on the modern and contemporary periods.

The relevant fields of research are

Sinology/Chinese Studies, Japanese Studies, Korean Studies and/or further disciplines with a strong focus on East Asia, such as Social Sciences (Political Science, Economics, Sociology), History, Religious Studies, Linguistics, Literary Studies.
