

Walter L. Arnstein Prize for Dissertation Research in Victorian Studies

Announcement published by Charles McGuire on Monday, January 22, 2018

Type:

Grant

Date:

January 16, 2018 to February 1, 2018

Location:

Ohio, United States

Subject Fields:

Art, Art History & Visual Studies, British History / Studies, Literature, Music and Music History, Women's & Gender History / Studies

Dear Colleagues,

Apologies for cross posting. quick reminder: applications for the Midwest Victorian Studies Walter L. Arnstein Prize for Dissertation Research in Victorian Studies are due on February 1, 2018. If you are a graduate student working on a Victorian topic (considered broadly) consider applying! If you have graduate student working on Victorian topics, please encourage them to apply. The prize is $1,500 for dissertation research, and applications are due on February 1, 2018. More information about the prize and the application may be found here: <http://www.midwestvictorian.org/p/prizes.html>.

Please direct questions to Charles McGuire, Vice President, Midwest Victorian Studies Association (cmcguire at oberlin.edu).

All best,

Charles

Contact Info:

Charles Edward McGuire

Professor of Musicology, Oberlin College & Conservatory

Vice President, Midwestern Victorian Studies Association

Contact Email:

cmcguire@oberlin.edu

URL:

<http://www.midwestvictorian.org/p/prizes.html>