

Votes for Women Trail Map

Page published by System Administrator on Thursday, July 21, 2016

The annotated map below is generated from entries contributed by our H-Kentucky subscribers. Hover your mouse over the thumbtack to see the name of the historical person(s) associated with that site - click on the thumbtack to see the full entry. Use the map legend to zoom in on a particular area or to move to a different part of the map. You can search on key terms or time periods on this page \(click here\).

We need you to help us identify more of Kentucky's suffrage sites -- we will be sending all our entries to contribute to a nation-wide woman suffrage history digital map being developed by National Collaboration for Women's Historical Sites. Please log in to H-Kentucky and contribute to the Kentucky Woman Suffrage Trail with your own entry today.
