

OBIT: Peggy Cooper Cafritz

Discussion published by Matthew Gilmore on Monday, February 19, 2018

Peggy Cooper Cafritz, known for her contributions to the art scene in D.C. and her six-year tenure as D.C.'s school board president, died Sunday, Feb. 18 at the age of 70.

see: <http://www.fox5dc.com/news/local-news/dc-visionary-peggy-cooper-cafritz-co-founder-of-duke-elliington-school-dies-at-age-70>

<https://www.usatoday.com/story/news/2018/02/18/activist-peggy-cooper-cafritz-who-helped-build-model-public-education-dies-70/349617002/>

https://www.washingtonpost.com/local/obituaries/peggy-coopercafritz-grande-dame-of-the-washington-arts-and-education-scene-dies-at-70/2018/02/18/0f6bb948-14c1-11e8-92c9-376b4fe57ff7_story.html?utm_term=.698fb9851e6d

<https://www.nbcwashington.com/news/local/Peggy-Cooper-Cafritz-Co-Founder-of-Duke-Ellington-School-of-the-Arts-Has-Died-474424983.html>

<https://wtop.com/dc/2018/02/peggy-cooper-cafritz-influential-education-and-arts-patron-dies-at-70/>

BIO: <http://www.thehistorymakers.org/biography/peggy-cooper-cafritz-41>

Profile: <https://www.nytimes.com/2015/01/15/garden/peggy-cooper-cafritz-everything-in-a-big-way.html>