Extension of the call for Panel Proposals

6th French Network for Asian Studies International Conference

(FNASIC)

26 to 28 June 2017

Sciences Po, Paris

<http://congresasie2017.sciencesconf.org>

New deadline for submissions: 13 November 2016

Organizer: the French Network for Asian Studies (GIS-Réseau Asie): <http://www.gis-reseau-asie.org/>

Objectives: the overall objectives of the conference are to present the latest research and current debates within the field of Asian studies, to promote transdisciplinary and transcultural exchanges, and to foster international collaborations.

Panels:

Each panel will consist of 3 to 6 speakers (topics are unrestricted).

Participation of PhD students and postdocs is highly encouraged (1).

The following three types of panels will be considered:

- Panels organized under a common topic, with speakers, preferably from more than one country, specialized in different areas or disciplines
- Panels on a co-authored book or a special issue of journal dedicated to Asia, published after October 2015 or forthcoming

- Panels on existing research projects (for instance ANR, H2020, JSPS... funded projects). Several panels can be organized for a given research project.

Languages: English and/or French.

How to submit a proposal?

Proposals must be submitted online on the conference website (<http://congresasie2017.sciencesconf.org>), first by coordinators of the panel and then by each speaker participating in the panel, by 13 november 2016(2). Coordinators need to submit: title and summary of the panel (max. 300 words), keywords, list of speakers. Speakers need to submit: title and abstract of their presentation (max. 200 words).
