

Call for Applications for 2017 Indigenous Writer in Residence Fellowship

Announcement published by Maria Spray on Tuesday, November 15, 2016

Type:

Fellowship

Date:

November 15, 2016 to January 9, 2017

Location:

New Mexico, United States

Subject Fields:

Literature, Composition & Rhetoric, Indigenous Studies, Native American History / Studies, Oral History

Indigenous Writer-in-Residence Fellowship at the School for Advanced Research

The School for Advanced Research (SAR), with the generous support of the Lannan Foundation, is seeking applicants for the Indigenous Writer-in-Residence fellowship. The purpose of this fellowship is to advance the work of an indigenous writer pursuing their creative project while enabling them to interact with local scholarly, artist, and Native communities. The fellowship runs from mid-June to early August and is open to writers indigenous to the United States or Canada. The fellow is provided with a $6,000 stipend, on-campus housing, office space, supplies allowance, library support, and travel reimbursement to and from SAR.

The deadline to apply is Monday, January 09, 2017. For more information, please visit sarweb.org and click on the Programs link or call Maria Spray at 505-954-7237.

Contact Info:

Maria Spray

Scholar Programs Coordinator

School for Advanced Research

Contact Email:

scholar@sarsf.org

URL:

http://sarweb.org/index.php?program_indigenous_writer_in_residence