

LECTURE—Satoshi Kawamoto, "Imperial Ceremonies and Istanbul Suburbs: Üsküdar and Davutpaşa at the Turn of the Seventeenth Century"

Announcement published by Cecily Pollard on Tuesday, November 22, 2016

Type:

Lecture

Date:

December 1, 2016

Location:

Massachusetts, United States

Subject Fields:

Arabic History / Studies, Archaeology, Architecture and Architectural History, Art, Art History & Visual Studies, Islamic History / Studies

2016 - 2017 AKPIA Lecture Series, A Forum for Islamic Art & Architecture

The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University presents

Thursday, December 1, 2016

"Imperial Ceremonies and Istanbul Suburbs: Üsküdar and Davutpaşa at the Turn of the Seventeenth Century"

Satoshi Kawamoto

Research Fellow, Japan Society for the Promotion of Science

Harvard AKPIA Associate

Lectures are free and open to the public. They are held Thursdays, 5:30 - 6:30 p.m., at the Arthur M. Sackler Building, Room 318, Harvard University, 485 Broadway, Cambridge MA 02138.

For further information, call 617-495-2355, email agakhan@fas.harvard.edu or visit: <http://agakhan.fas.harvard.edu/icb/icb.do?keyword=k69205&tabgroupid=icb.tabgroup104234>

View our previous lectures:

<http://agakhan.fas.harvard.edu/icb/icb.do?keyword=k69205&tabgroupid=icb.tabgroup125394>

Contact Info:

Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture

Harvard University

Sackler 412

485 Broadway

Cambridge, MA 02138 USA

Tel 617-495-2355

Contact Email:

agakhan@fas.harvard.edu

URL:

<http://agakhan.fas.harvard.edu/icb/icb.do?keyword=k69205&tabgroupid=icb.tabgroup104234>