

H-SHERA-Resources

Page published by System Administrator on Monday, February 13, 2017

The purpose of H-SHERA is to promote research, provide a forum for ongoing conversations on areas of mutual interest, and foster contacts and collaboration among scholars of East European, Eurasian, and Russian art and architecture. This page will be a collection of research and teaching resources in East European, Eurasian, and Russian art and architecture. To submit an item or suggest a category for H-SHERA's Resources page, please contact the editors at editorial-shera@mail.h-net.msu.edu. Thank you!

Member Research (on SHERA website)

Research Resources (on SHERA website)

SHERA listserv logs 2004-2007

Image Permissions Contact List (List of contacts for obtaining photography and image permissions for Russian, East European, and Eurasian art and architecture)

Web Resources on Architecture (by Anna P. Sokolina)