

Dar al Islam Teachers' Institute: Understanding and Teaching About Islam

Announcement published by Rehana Shafi on Tuesday, March 7, 2017

Type:

Summer Program

Date:

July 9, 2017 to July 22, 2017

Location:

New Mexico, United States

Subject Fields:

Islamic History / Studies, Religious Studies and Theology, World History / Studies, Social History / Studies

Understanding Islam and Muslims: An Institute for Teachers

July 9-22 2017 in Abiquiu, New Mexico

Dar al Islam is pleased to offer the 27th annual residential Teachers' Institute. Islamic faith, practice, history and culture are taught with depth and breadth by university professors and Islamic scholars; additionally, participants will learn about resources and curriculum to teach about Islam in social studies, religion or world history classes. Finally, utilizing Institute materials, participants will collaborate on a final project that lends itself to immediate use in their classrooms.

If selected, the Teachers' Institute is FREE!! Participants pay their roundtrip travel expenses to Albuquerque, New Mexico. Dar al Islam provides books and supplementary materials, on-site room and board, and transportation between our campus in Abiquiu, NM and the Albuquerque International Airport.

Apply Now! Applications are accepted on a rolling basis until May with priority given to those submitted by April 1st. While the focus of this Institute is on secondary education, we accept and equally consider applications from a diversity of professionals.

For more information about Dar al Islam and the Teachers' Institute, visit us online at www.daralislam.org. If you have any questions, contact us at InstituteDirector@daralislam.org.

Contact Info:

Mr. Tariq Shafi and Mrs. Rehana Shafi

Contact Email:

InstituteDirector@daralislam.org

URL:

<http://daralislam.org/programs/education/teachers-institutes.aspx>