Dear DH community - the "Rinascimento" research guide side wants to inform about DH projects in process and not yet published, or published in an elementary form. Please send me your name, project title, brief description of 1-3 sentences, and contact information. Projects should be based on research related to Medieval, Renaissance or Early Modern times.

This site looks empty right now - help to popularize it. Get in touch with others and their work in progress. Think about overlapping topics and possibilities of linking among your projects:
