

"Favorite Movie" Research Participants Needed

Announcement published by Brian Johnson on Tuesday, April 4, 2017

Type:

Call for Volunteers

Date:

October 31, 2017

Subject Fields:

Film and Film History, Research and Methodology, Communication, American History / Studies, Popular Culture Studies

We are currently engaged in a study to understand movie audiences and how individuals choose a favorite film. This research may be used for publication in an academic journal or presentation at an academic conference. We invite adults above the age of 18 to participate in the following survey, which takes approximately 30 minutes or less to complete. Please submit NO LATER than October 31, 2017.

The data you provide will be recorded anonymously. Your participation in this survey is voluntary and you may refuse or discontinue participation at any time without consequence or prejudice. Questions or concerns about this study, including your role as a participant, may be directed to Dr. Brian C. Johnson, 570-389-4006, 400 E. Second Street, Bloomsburg, PA 17815 (IRB #2017-20).

Tell us what you like about movies: Click here: tinyurl.com/jwmjafq

Contact Info:

Brian C. Johnson, Ph.D.

Contact Email:

bjohnson@bloomu.edu