Call for Papers

You are welcome to submit your abstracts to International Graduate Symposium: ASGRAD which is scheduled to be held on the 22nd -23rd of October, 2018 in Izmir, Turkey.

Transformation has been a constant process since the dawn of humankind. The change we have been through as a species is not only limited to our own framework but it eventually has become a concept that permeates everything we produce or believe. This process has become apparent not only in our cultures and literary traditions but also on our perception of reality itself. The aim of this symposium is to gather graduate and post-graduate students in a venue where all participants can freely share and discuss their studies related to this subject.

ASGRAD invites all graduate and post-graduate students to submit their abstracts to participate in the Symposium on the topical issues including but not limited to the suggested topics listed below.

- Transformation in Literary Traditions
- Transformation in All Types of Fictions
- Psychological Transformation
- Transformation Through Identity Crisis
- Construction and Deconstruction in Transformation
- Transformation and Mythology
- Transformation and Posthumanism/Transhumanism
- Transformation in Personal/National/Collective Identity and Memory
- Transformation and History
- Transformation in Theatre
