The Georgia Association of Historians invites proposals from professional historians and current graduate students of history for its 2018 Conference in Macon, GA. The GAH welcomes proposals from all areas and subfields of history, including African, North American, Asian, European, and Latin American history, global history, public history, historic preservation, and regional studies, as well as proposals focused on resource and archival management and historical pedagogy. We encourage innovative session formats such as roundtables and moderated discussions as well as traditional paper sessions. State of the field presentations are also greatly encouraged. Proposals for full sessions will be given priority, although individual papers will be considered. The deadline for proposal submission is Monday, October 16, 2017. For more information please visit the GAH website.
