Studia Politica. Romanian Political Science Review publishes high quality, peer reviewed articles in all major areas of political science including political theory, comparative politics, political sociology, public policy, international relations and global studies. Founded in 2001 and focusing particularly on Central Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union, it welcomes contributions on a wide range of geographical areas and topics that aim to advance the field through both theoretical and empirical innovative studies. The journal invites submissions of original articles, book reviews and reviews essays in English, French, Italian, German or Romanian.

Studia Politica is indexed in the following academic databases: CEEOL (since 2005); SSOAR (since 2009); Scopus (since 2013); EBSCO (since 2011); ProQuest(since 2013).

All the texts submitted for publication are peer reviewed by at least two referees. We also welcome reviews of political science books recently published (no more than 3 years old). Send us your texts, which comply to the journal's authors' guidelines <http://www.studiapolitica.eu/Author-guidelines>

Deadlines: Issue (1) 15 January, Issue (2) 15 April, Issue (3) 15 July, Issue (4) 15 October.
