Type:

Fellowship

Date:

December 15, 2018

Location:

Illinois, United States

Subject Fields:

British History / Studies, Early Modern History and Period Studies, European History / Studies, Humanities, Law and Legal History

The Newberry Library's long-standing fellowship program provides outstanding scholars with the time, space, and community required to pursue innovative and ground-breaking scholarship. In addition to the Library's collections, fellows are supported by a collegial interdisciplinary community of researchers, curators, and librarians. An array of scholarly and public programs also contributes to an engaging intellectual environment.

The Charles Montgomery Gray Fellowship provides access to the Newberry's collection for PhD candidates or postdoctoral scholars. This fellowship is open to applicants in all areas of study appropriate to the library's collection. Preference will be given to those working in the early modern period or Renaissance, as well as in English history, legal history, or European history.

Short-Term Fellowships are available to postdoctoral scholars, PhD candidates, and those who hold other terminal degrees. Short-Term Fellowships are generally awarded for 1 to 2 months; unless otherwise noted the stipend is $2,500 per month. These fellowships support individual scholarly research for those who have a specific need for the Newberry's collection and are mainly restricted to individuals who live and work outside of the Chicago metropolitan area. The deadline for short-term opportunities is December 15.

Many of the Newberry's fellowship opportunities have specific eligibility requirements; in order to learn more about these requisites, as well as application guidelines and additional fellowship opportunities, please visit our website. Questions should be addressed to research@newberry.org
