

CFP: Medicine and Madness in the Long 18th Century, 23-24 Feb 2018, SCSECS, Oxford MS

Announcement published by Judith Broome on Wednesday, September 27, 2017

Type:

Call for Papers

Date:

November 30, 2017

Location:

Mississippi, United States

Subject Fields:

Black History / Studies, History of Science, Medicine, and Technology, Latin American and Caribbean History / Studies, Women's & Gender History / Studies, European History / Studies

For the 2018 meeting of the South Central Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies, proposals are invited on any topic regarding medicine, madness, the medicine of madness, the madness of medicine, or the care and treatment of any illnesses, physical, mental, or emotional during the long eighteenth century. All disciplines and geographic areas are welcome.

150-word abstracts by 11/30/18. Electronic submissions, please.

Judith Broome

Department of English

William Paterson University of New Jersey

broomej1@wpunj.edu

Contact Info:

Judith Broome

Department of English, William Paterson University of New Jersey

Contact Email:

broomej1@wpunj.edu