

CFP: Media & Civil Rights History Symposium

Discussion published by Kenneth Campbell on Monday, November 26, 2018

Type:

Call for Papers

Date:

December 17, 2018

Location:

South Carolina, United States

Subject Fields:

African American History / Studies, American History / Studies, Black History / Studies, Communication, Journalism and Media Studies

Media & Civil Rights History Symposium

March 8-9, 2019

School of Journalism and Mass Communications

University of South Carolina

Deadline: December 17, 2018

Call for Abstracts and Proposals

Papers, Research-in-Progress and Panels

We are accepting abstracts (up to 500 words) for papers and panel sessions (up to 1,000 words) on all aspects of the historical relationship between media and civil rights. Abstracts for papers and research-in-progress must include a title, brief description of the research, and some primary sources. Panel proposals must include a title, brief description of the panel and panelists.

The biennial Media & Civil Rights History Symposium welcomes scholars from various disciplines and approaches that address the vital relationship between civil rights and public communication from local/national/transnational contexts, perspectives and periods. The symposium, which concludes with the Farrar Award in Media & Civil Rights History presentation, will take place in conjunction with the AEJMC Southeast Colloquium.

For more information visit <http://bit.ly/uofsc-sjmc-mcrhs> or contact Dr. Kenneth Campbell, Director, Media & Civil Rights History Symposium, at kcampbell@sc.edu

Contact Info:

Dr. Kenneth Campbell

Director, Media & Civil Rights History Symposium

kcampbell@sc.edu

Contact Email:

kcampbell@sc.edu

URL:

<http://bit.ly/uofsc-sjmc-mcrhs>