

Seeking Co-Panelists on Woman Suffrage for OAH 2020

Discussion published by Anya Jabour on Friday, December 7, 2018

Type:

Call for Papers

Date:

December 5, 2018 to January 15, 2019

Location:

Montana, United States

Subject Fields:

African American History / Studies, American History / Studies, Women's & Gender History / Studies

I am interested in creating a panel to explore the diversity, successes, failures, and legacy of the woman suffrage movement in the U.S. and/or the Americas at the annual meeting of the OAH to be held in Washington, D.C., April 2-4, 2020. My own contribution would explore the feminist activism of Sophonisba Preston Breckinridge, a U.S.-based reformer who advocated for woman suffrage but opposed the Equal Rights Amendment. Deadline for submission is Feb. 1, 2019. If you are interested in participating as a panelist, chair, or commentator, please contact Anya Jabour at anya.jabour@umontana.edu by January 15, 2019. For the CFP, see: <http://www.oah.org/meetings-events/meetings-events/call-for-proposals/>

•

Contact Info:

Anya Jabour, University of Montana

Contact Email:

anya.jabour@umontana.edu

URL:

<http://www.oah.org/meetings-events/meetings-events/call-for-proposals/>