

LECTURE> Special Lecture by Dr. Fumihiko Sueki, February 14 2019, Ryukoku University

Discussion published by Takahiko Kameyama on Monday, February 11, 2019

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

I am pleased to announce the special lecture by Dr. Fumihiko Sueki in Ryukoku University on behalf of the Research Center for World Buddhist Cultures, Ryukoku University.

Dr. Sueki, a professor emeritus of Tokyo University and the International Research Center for Japanese Studies, will give a lecture concerning Japanese emperors (tenno) and Japanese religions during modern period on February 14, 2019 in Ryukoku University Omiya Campus.

Special Lecture in the Research Center for World Buddhist Cultures, Ryukoku University

Title "The Sacredness of Modern Japanese Emperors (tenno) and Buddhas and Kami" (□□□□□□□□□□)

Speaker Fumihiko Sueki (International Research Center for Japanese Studies)

Date February 14 2019, 15:00-16:30

Place Conference Room, 2nd Floor West Hall, Omiya Campus, Ryukoku University
(Language Japanese)

Sponsors Research Center for World Buddhist Cultures, Ryukoku University

Free of charge. No reservation is needed.

For more information, please see the website of the Research Center for World Buddhist Cultures at Ryukoku University.

(<https://rcwbc.ryukoku.ac.jp/activity/2350>)

Sincerely yours.

Takahiko Kameyama