

Recent publications

Discussion published by Jason Schulman on Tuesday, February 12, 2019

Dear H-ANZAU members,

We are pleased to announce these new and recent publications of potential interest to members:

Vanessa Finney, *Capturing Nature: Early Scientific Photography at the Australian Museum 1857-1893* (NewSouth Publishing, 2019)

Greg Young, ed., *Paddington: A History* (NewSouth Publishing, 2019)

Joy Damousi and Judith Smart, eds., *Contesting Australian History: Essays in Honour of Marilyn Lake* (Monash University Publishing, 2019)

Peter Seamer, *Breaking Point: The Future of Australian Cities* (Black Inc. Books, 2019)

Carly Lane, Emilia Galatis and Stefano Carboni, eds., *Desert River Sea: Portraits of the Kimberley* (UWA Publishing, 2019)

Barbara Brookes, Jane McCabe and Angela Wanhalla, eds., *Past Caring? Women, Work and Emotion* (Otago University Press, 2019)

Oishee Alam, *Facing Race: White Australian Converts to Islam* (Melbourne University Publishing, 2018)

Jo Hawkins, *Consuming ANZAC: The History of Australia's Most Powerful Brand* (UWA Publishing, 2018)

Chris Bourke, *Good-bye Maoriland: The Songs and Sounds of New Zealand's Great War* (Auckland University Press, 2017)

NOTE: If you have recently published or have a forthcoming publication and would like it to be featured on H-ANZAU, please email editorial-anzau@mail.h-net.msu.edu with basic information: author's name, title, journal or publisher, year of publication, and a link to access it. You can also send along information about outstanding recent work that you have read and consider to be of interest to other members of the network. Thank you for your help.