The NZASIA Society will convene its 23rd Biennial Conference, Wellington, New Zealand, from 24th to 27th November this year. Our biennial conference is multidisciplinary and aims to bring together scholars working in the broader, open, and contested site of Asian Studies. Participants are invited to submit panel or paper proposals presenting original research on any Asian-related topic.

We have now posted a call for papers on the Society's web site: <http://www.nzasia.org.nz/conference.html>
