Welcome to the International Conference on Emerging Issues in Public Policy: Global Trends and Projections. Academicians, policy makers, researchers, postgraduate students, and other stakeholders are invited to send abstracts to the International Conference on Public Policy, which aims to connect decision makers from the public and private sectors and local and international nongovernmental organisations to discuss and debate emerging issues at the national and international levels in contemporary society. The International Institute of Public Policy and Management (INPUMA) is proud to provide you with this platform to network together to identify emerging issues and make projections for future global trends.
