

Call for Authors: Encyclopedia of the Sustainable Development Goals: Transforming the World We Want

Announcement published by Dmitry Kurochkin on Thursday, August 1, 2019

Type:

Call for Publications

Location:

United States

Subject Fields:

Environmental History / Studies, Economic History / Studies, Public Policy, Political Science

You are invited to take part on the world's largest editorial project on sustainability ever undertaken - the "Encyclopedia of the Sustainable Development Goals: Transforming the World We Want" published by Springer, as part of the award-winning "World Sustainability Series":

The Encyclopedia encompasses 17 volumes, but we are particularly seeking authors for:

Goal 8 - Decent Work & Economic Growth (Promote sustained, inclusive and sustainable economic growth, full and productive employment and decent work for all)

For each, we have terms which need to be authored, but you can suggest up to 3 chapters to author.

The size of each chapter will be circa 4,900 words (excluding the reference list). The chapters are critical summaries/synopses rather than original research reports.

Contributions to the Encyclopedia are peer-reviewed. By September 30, please submit your contribution to Dr. Dmitry Kurochkin dkurochk@tulane.edu.
