Massachusetts, United States

Subject Fields:

Literature, French History / Studies, Philosophy, Women's & Gender History / Studies, Cultural History / Studies

51st NeMLA Annual Convention / Boston, MA / March 5-8, 2020

This panel will focus on uncovering the ideas and philosophies proposed by 17th- and 18th-century French writers to criticize, change, or improve their world. We will discuss their personal ideas, beliefs, and value systems in light of the reality of their time. 17th- and 18th-century authors will include female and male philosophers, moralists, essayists, poets, novelists, and playwrights. The method of analysis is open.
